Take immediate measures to combat direct and indirect manifestations of Neo-Nazism, racism, xenophobia and related intolerance affecting children and to effectively investigate, prosecute and punish such acts. It also recommends that the State party strengthen its efforts to foster a culture of tolerance and mutual respect. Furthermore, it recommends that the State party include information in its next periodic report on measures and programmes relevant to the Convention on the Rights of the Child undertaken by the State party in follow-up to the Declaration and Programme of Action adopted at the 2001 World Conference against Racism, Racial Discrimination, Xenophobia and Related Intolerance, as well as the outcome document adopted at the 2009 Durban Review Conference. Strengthen its efforts to ensure that the principle of the best interests of the child is appropriately integrated and consistently applied in all legislative, administrative and judicial proceedings as well as in all policies, programmes and projects relevant to and with an impact on children. In this regard, the State party is encouraged to develop procedures and criteria to provide guidance for determining the best interests of the child in every area, and to disseminate these to public or private social welfare institutions, courts of law, administrative authorities and legislative bodies. The legal reasoning of all judicial and administrative judgments and decisions should also be based on this principle	CRC/C/AUT/CO/3-4	CRC	laufende Umsetzung Kinderrechte-Monitoring Ausschuss
Increase its efforts to raise awareness among the general public, particularly children, about the rights provided for in the CRC, by including children's rights in the curricula of primary and secondary education	CRC/C/AUT/CO/3-4	CRC	laufende Umsetzung Kinderrechte-Monitoring Ausschuss
Violence against children, including commercial and sexual exploitation, corporal punishment, worst forms of child labour, children living and/or working on the street
Undertake all measures necessary to end the practice of anonymous abandonment and expeditiously strengthen and promote alternatives such as the possibility of anonymous births at hospitals as a measure of last resort to avoid abandonment and or death of the child, and to keep a confidential record of the parents to which the child could access at a later stage, taking into account the duty to fully comply with all provisions of the Convention. Furthermore, the Committee urges the State party to increase its efforts to address the root causes which lead to the abandonment of infants, including the provision of family planning as well as adequate counselling and social support for unplanned pregnancies and the prevention of risk pregnancies.	CRC/C/AUT/CO/3-4	CRC	laufende Umsetzung Kinderrechte-Monitoring Ausschuss

Take all necessary measures: (a) To ensure the protection of and respect by the media for the privacy of children, in particular in news reporting on criminal proceedings involving child victims and/or children accused of sexual and other offences; (b) To protect children against "cyber mobbing", "happy slapping" and other forms of humiliation, insult and defamation, as well as against grooming, in social forums on the Internet and via mobile phones; (c) To educate children, parents and teachers on the need to protect the privacy of children and the risks and legal consequences in case of misuse of electronic media by children, while respecting their right of access to appropriate information.	CRC/C/AUT/CO/3-4	CRC	laufende Umsetzung Kinderrechte-Monitoring Ausschuss
Strengthen and expand awareness-raising programmes and education campaigns in order to promote positive and alternative forms of discipline and respect for children's rights, with the involvement of children, in line with its general comment No. 8 (2006); continue educating teachers and parents on the immediate and long-term negative impact, including the psychological and physical impact, of corporal punishment on children.
