

Mathias Vogl, Mag. Dr., Director General, 1982 entry into Police Service; education as commissioned officer; training in criminal investigation at FBI National Academy in Quantico, Virginia, USA; graduation and finalication of doctorate studies in law at University of Vienna after studies carried out in parrallel; since 1997 engaged in legislative matters; political legal advicer from 2000 until 2002; since January 2002 Deputy Head, since March 2005 Head of Legal Affairs Division in Ministry of Interior; Deputy Head of Federal Electoral Board; Chairman of Disciplinary Commission; Chairman of Advisory Board on the Maintenance of Country Records; Member of the Human Rights Advisory Council at the Austrian Ombudsman Board; member of several legal societies (e.g. Austrian Commission of Jurists, Austrian Society of Adminstrative Sciences, Austrian Society of Legislative Policy; Austrian Jurists Day); numerous publications in legal area, especially in constitutional, administrative and criminal sciences; Lecturer; Leopold Kunschak-Award.